Policy to Permit
Headwear to be Worn in a Secure Examination Test Center
Due to Religious Beliefs

The Committee of Bar Examiners (Committee) will consider petitions filed by applicants seeking exemptions from the examination test center prohibited items policy that would permit them to wear headwear while in a secure examination test center due to their religious beliefs, if they meet the criteria discussed below.

An applicant seeking an exemption must submit a petition, on the Committee's form, indicating why a religious exemption is needed and the type of headwear he/she would like to bring into the secure testing area. The applicant must sign and declare under penalty of perjury that his or her religious beliefs necessitate the need for the exemption. The petition must be received no later than the final application filing deadline for the examination the applicant intends to take. Requests for an extension or an exception to this deadline will not be considered.

The petition should be forwarded to the following address:

The State Bar of California
Office of Admissions
Attn: Petitions Department
845 S. Figueroa Street
Los Angeles, CA 90017-2515

Any applicant granted permission to wear headwear while in a secure examination test center could be subject to inspection, if such inspection is required in order to verify the identity of the applicant or if there is suspected cheating.

Applicants granted exemptions that would permit them to wear headwear while the examination is in session must bring a copy of the Committee's letter with them to the examination test center, which confirms that they were granted an exemption, and be prepared to show the letter upon request by official Test Center personnel.
